

Preventive Law Symposium
Launching National Center for Preventive Law Activities at the California Western School of Law, San Diego

*Sponsored by the Louis M. Brown Program in Preventive Law
November 10 and 11, 2000*

I. REWINDING THE TAPE: A Primer on Issues in Preventive Law

The Search for a Theory of Preventing Problems

- ★ Thomas D. Barton, professor of law and director, Louis M. Brown Program in Preventive Law, California Western School of Law; coordinator, National Center for Preventive Law
- ★ Ed Dauer, senior associate, Health Care Negotiation Associates, Lexington, Massachusetts; professor and dean emeritus, University of Denver College of Law; co-founder and former president, National Center for Preventive Law

The History and Future of Preventive Law

- ★ Woody Mosten, certified family law attorney specializing in mediation and ADR systems design; chair, Dispute Resolution Committee of the Beverly Hills Bar; executive chair, Louis M. Brown International Client Counseling Competition; member, ABA Standing Committee on Delivery of Legal Services; founder of Mosten Mediation Centers
- ★ Bob Shafton, independent arbitrator and mediator; of counsel, Stroock Stroock & Lavan; has served on panels for the American Arbitration Association, CPR Institute for Dispute Resolution and Duke University Private Adjudication Center

The Lawyer as Private and Public Counselor

- ★ Hermione Brown, attorney, Gang Tyre Ramer & Brown, Beverly Hills, California; philanthropist and widow of Louis M. Brown
- ★ Murray Galinson, president, San Diego National Bank; chairman emeritus of the board of trustees, California Western School of Law

The Values and Assumptions of Practicing Preventively

- ★ Dave Rowley, attorney specializing in preventive law, San Diego, California; past director, National Center for Preventive Law
- ★ Alidad Vakili, business and corporate law attorney, Fisher Thurber, La Jolla, California

The Role of Communication and Cooperation

- ★ Debra Gerardi, attorney specializing in health law, San Francisco bay area
- ★ Soile Pohjonen, Law Faculty, University of Helsinki, Finland; researcher in jurisprudence and comparative law

Law Reform: Building Prevention Through Substantive Laws

- ★ David Wexler, professor of law and professor of psychology, University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona; professor of law and director, International Network on Therapeutic Jurisprudence, University of Puerto Rico, San Juan, Puerto Rico
- ★ Josephine Gittler, professor of law, University of Iowa College of Law; director, University of Iowa Conflict Management Institute Program on Health Care; co-director, National Maternal and Child Health Resource Center

Video Production and Preventive Law

- ★ James Cooper introduced the Jurist Voices video, and also showed clips from Mike Goldblatt and Milton Bordwin interviews at the luncheon, followed in the early evening by a Reception and Film Screening of Jurist Voices at the Museum of Photographic Arts in Balboa Park

II. PLAYING THE TAPE: Current Practices and Emerging Ideas

Entertainment Law

- ★ Harold Brown, attorney, Gang Tyre Ramer & Brown, Beverly Hills, California; and son of the late Louis M. Brown

Preventive Law in Commercial Transactions

- ★ Helena Haapio, international contract counsel for Lexpert Ltd, Helsinki, Finland; former in-house counsel for Wartsila Group companies (Finland, Sweden, Norway and U.S.); nominated “Export Trainer of the Year” by the Finnish Institute for International Trade
- ★ Jeff Schneider, commercial/real estate/business litigation attorney, Solomon Ward Seidenwurm & Smith, San Diego, California; adjunct professor, California Western School of Law

Diverse Business Practices

- ★ Daniel Hapke, legal counsel and president, Board of Directors, San Diego Habitat for Humanity; former member of the board of directors, American Corporate Counsel Association
- ★ Soili Nysten-Haarala, docent, Helsinki School of Economics, visiting professor, Law Department, Umea University, Sweden
- ★ Rafael Rafaelli III, commercial law attorney representing clients throughout Latin America and Proyecto Acceso member, New York City

Immigration and Human Rights

- ★ William Aceves, professor of law, California Western School of Law; amicus curiae counsel to Amnesty International, Human Rights Watch, and Lawyers Committee for Human Rights; advisor to the Center for Justice & Accountability and the Center for Constitutional Rights; principal author, 2002 Amnesty International USA report on torture and impunity in the U.S.
- ★ Lilia Velasquez, immigration attorney, San Diego, California; adjunct professor and indigenous project director, Proyecto Acceso, California Western School of Law

Physical and Mental Health

- ★ Steve Ciceron, Bristol-Myers Squibb Co., Princeton, New Jersey
- ★ Dan Groszkruger, founder/principal counsel, rskmgmt.inc, Solana Beach, California; of counsel, Chapin, Fleming & Winet, San Diego, California; has more than twenty years combined experience as a hospital administrator, defense trial attorney, consultant, author and educator in the fields of healthcare risk management, litigation management, and managed care issues
- ★ Steve Smith, dean and professor of law, California Western School of Law
- ★ Bruce Winick, professor of law, University of Miami School of Law; co-editor APA press book series, Law and Public Policy: Psychology and the Social Sciences; legal consultant, AALS section on Law and Medicine; former general counsel, New York City Department of Mental Health & Mental Retardation Services; former director, Court Mental Health Services, New York City Health Services Administration

Family Law and the Courts

- ★ Janet Bowermaster, professor of law, California Western School of Law
- ★ Mike Town, circuit court judge presently assigned to the Criminal Division of the Circuit Court in Honolulu, Hawaii, formerly presiding judge of the Family Court of the First Circuit; board of trustees, National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges

Training Preventive Skills

- ★ Leary Davis, professor of law and founding dean, Campbell University School of Law, Buies Creek, North Carolina; director, IS•POL•SED; fellow, College of Law Practice Management; president, National Institute to Enhance Leadership and Law Practice
- ★ Janet Weinstein, professor of law, California Western School of Law
- ★ Mark Weinstein, professor of law, California Western School of Law

Corporate Compliance Programs

- ★ Gary Boyle, senior compliance counsel, The Williams Companies, Inc
- ★ Richard Gruner, professor of law, Whittier Law School; authorship includes books The Legal Audit (West Group beg 1995) and Corporate Crime and Sentencing 2d ed, (Business Laws 1998)
- ★ Paivi Nygren, counsel to Liability Insurance Department of Sampo Industrial, part of the Sampo Group, Finland's largest financial group

Preventive Law and International Trade

- ★ James Cooper, Assistant Dean for Mission Development, California Western School of Law; consultant, Ministry of Justice of Chile; former board member, World Affairs Counsel
- ★ Joel Junker, attorney in private practice in international trade regulation and policy, former Assistant General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission
- ★ Matti Rudanko, professor of private law, Helsinki School of Economics and Business Administration, leader of the Academy of Finland project on behaviour and interests of parties to business relationships; general civil law co-editor of the Finnish Legal Encyclopedia (Encyclopaedia Iuridica Fennica)

Preventive Law in the Community

- ★ Art Campbell, professor of law, California Western School of Law
- ★ David Hobler, attorney, advisor to drug treatment courts, president of consulting firm Fit In Recovery, speaker and teacher on the general topic of Practicing An Ethic of Self-Care
- ★ Sue Manheimer, police chief, City of San Mateo, California

Employment Law Issues

- ★ Jim Frierson, attorney, author and professor, College of Business, East Tennessee State University, Johnson City, Tennessee
- ★ Jerrilyn Malana, employment-related litigation attorney, Littler Mendelson San Diego office; former clerk to the Honorable Louisa S. Porter, Presiding Magistrate Judge, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California; former member of the board of trustees, California Western School of Law
- ★ Scott Rechtschaffen, employment and labor relations attorney, Littler Mendelson San Francisco office; has written extensively including Employee Handbooks: How To Write One For Your Company (California Chamber of Commerce) and software for human resource professionals and attorneys; former senior vice president of learning for Employment Law Learning Technologies

Probing the Relational Contexts of Problems

- ★ Floralynn Einesman, professor of law and director, trial practice program, California Western School of Law
- ★ Janeen Kerper, professor of law and director, Proyecto Acceso, California Western School of Law
- ★ Linda Morton, professor of law, California Western School of Law

III. FAST-FORWARDING THE TAPE: Where Should Preventive Law and the National Center for Preventive Law Go in the Next Decade?

What is the role of the National Center for Preventive Law and how can Preventive Law be institutionally advanced through the NCPL? What would be the most helpful materials and activities to students, practicing attorneys, and judges?