

Suri Cruise's Private Facts

Although Suri has threatened Katie with emancipation, Suri knows that she can't be legally emancipated because of Family Code § 100.3. Family Code § 100.3 states that a minor cannot be legally emancipated if pregnant. Suri is three months pregnant with Sean Preston Federline's (SP) baby (and her mother has no idea) and so she has to come to an agreement today.

Suri is willing to continue to work on the "Suri Missouri" series for another year and give Katie up to $1 million provided that Katie will stop managing Suri's career and allow Suri to work in whatever movie she wants, even though Katie would prefer to have creative control over Suri's career choices.

Shortly after Suri found out she was pregnant, she received confirmation that she was not actually Tom Cruise's biological child, but rather the child of L. Ron Hubbard, something that had been speculated about for years. Initially, this shocking news embarrassed and hurt Suri. Suri knows this is very damaging information, and is very embarrassed by it. Regardless of her embarrassment, she is willing to use this fact against her mother.

Suri does not want to practice Scientology as Katie has forced her to, especially after Suri learned about the birth delivery rituals Katie went through during Suri's birth. Suri wants to exercise her freedom of religion. She wants to practice the Southern Baptist religion since she greatly admires recently turned "born again Christian," Mel Gibson.

Above all, Suri wants to make her own choices regarding her career, she wants her mom to be more responsible with their finances, and she wants to choose her own religious practices. If she has to, she will pursue the emancipation action against Katie.
