

The CALIFORNIA EMPLOYMENT LAWYERS ASSOCIATION is a statewide organization of attorneys representing employees in termination, discrimination and other employment cases. We help our members protect and expand the legal rights and opportunities of working women and men through litigation, education and advocacy.

FULL MEMBERS must be attorneys in good standing in the California Bar who EITHER devote at least 75% of their practices to representing employees OR represent employees at least 51% of the time and represent individuals and plaintiffs at least 90% of the time. Members shown below are full members unless they are listed in italics.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERS are shown below in italics. Associate members must be attorneys in good standing with the California Bar who EITHER devote at least 51% of their practices to representing plaintiffs (including non-employment and employment cases) OR are full time mediators, arbitrators or law school professors.

LAW STUDENT MEMBERS are also shown below in italics. Law students are not yet licensed to represent clients, but have shown their dedication to the field by becoming members.
