

Constangy, Brooks, Smith & Prophete, LLP
Commitment to Diversity Scholarship Application

In furtherance of Constangy, Brooks, Smith & Prophete's steadfast commitment to diversity, we are proud to announce the Commitment to Diversity Scholarship. The selected recipient will receive a $5,000 scholarship to be used towards tuition, books and other education related expenses. In order to be considered for the scholarship, interested individuals must submit a completed application, which will be available at constangy.com no later than midnight on October 31, 2016. Each applicant must (1) be in his/her second year of law school at an accredited institution located in one of the states in which the firm has an office; (2) have a cumulative GPA of at least a 3.0 at the time of application; and, (3) submit the completed application, to include a description of the applicant's current activities that demonstrate a commitment to diversity in law school or the legal profession and a brief description of how the applicant has overcome obstacles to reach his or her goals. Any applications, or pieces of information required as part of the application process, received after the deadline will not be considered.

Should you wish to confirm receipt of your application, please send it in a manner that notifies you of receipt (i.e., certified return receipt mail).

The award recipient will be notified in November, 2016, and awarded soon thereafter.

Applications should be mailed or delivered to:

Margaret P. Zabijaka
Constangy, Brooks, Smith & Prophete, LLP
200 West Forsyth Street, Suite 1700
Jacksonville, FL 32202-4317.

Any information provided in the attached application may be subject to verification by Constangy, Brooks, Smith & Prophete, LLP. Also, the Award recipient's name and school may be published on the firm's website, in recruiting materials, in marketing materials, and in press releases. Your signature on the application provides consent to such publication. All other information provided in connection with this application will be kept confidential and will be used only for purposes related to your consideration for the scholarship.
