SCCLA FELLOWSHIP

As a SCCLA Fellow, you will have the unique opportunity to work with the Asian Americans Advancing Justice | Los Angeles (AAAJ-LA), the nation's largest legal organization serving the Asian and Pacific Islander (API) communities. This experience will allow you to work directly with the community by being a part of AAAJ-LA's Legal Services Unit, which provides free legal services to low-income individuals. You will learn how to conduct legal intakes, assist with casework, and learn about the areas of domestic violence related family law and immigration law.

Requirements and Guidelines:

1. Fellows are expected to work 150 hours per semester. The work schedule is 2 full days a week, working at least 15 hours a week, for 10 weeks. A $2000.00 fellowship award will be issued once you have completed your required hours.
2. Up to four separate fellowships will be awarded per year. It is possible to be awarded two fellowships per fellow.
3. The Fellowship is a distinct and unique opportunity. It cannot be used to satisfy school credit or any other program or project unless explicitly permitted by SCCLA and AAAJ-LA prior to being selected as a fellow.
4. Once applications have been reviewed, AAAJ-LA will contact potential candidates for a phone interview. For finalists, an in-person interview may be required. Once the fellows are selected, they will be contacted by AAAJ-LA.
5. Selected fellows will be recognized at the SCCLA banquet that same year as "selected fellows", but will not be awarded the fellowship title or money until completion of the fellowship requirements (scholarship and fellowship recipients are selected a few weeks before the annual SCCLA banquet which is generally held in March or April). The official award and recognition for fellows will be given at the following year's banquet. For fall fellows, this banquet will happen after their fellowship is complete. For spring fellows, the banquet will occur concurrently with their fellowship, but after they have started their hours.
6. In the event a selected fellow is unable to begin their fellowship, other applicants may be contacted for their availability.
