

Cal Western grads take Oath of Professional Conduct

By DOUG SHERWIN, The Daily Transcript
Tuesday, June 10, 2014

Nearly 40 recent California Western School of Law graduates became members of the California and federal bars in a ceremony held on June 4. California Western graduates surpassed the statewide average for first-time takers from ABA accredited law schools with more than 72 percent passing.

The new lawyers were honored at a breakfast given by the law school, where they also took the Oath of Professional Conduct with family and friends present