Higgs Fletcher & Mack recently hired Gerissa Conforti as an associate to its family law group. She will play an important role in advising and counseling clients on family-related legal issues with an emphasis on delivering positive, cost-effective results.

Conforti comes to Higgs from the Law Office of Michael Stephen Berg. She graduated in 2009 from California Western School of Law, where she made the dean's honor list, won the academic achievement award in sexuality and law, and was selected as the commencement ceremony student speaker.
