

Cal Western's Neill reappointed to FCC committee

By Lyle Moran, The Daily Transcript
Tuesday, May 12, 2015

Art Neill, executive director of New Media Rights, was appointed to a third term on the Federal Communications Commission's Consumer Advisory Committee.

New Media Rights is a clinical program at California Western School of Law that provides legal services, advocacy and education to Internet users.

Staff attorney Teri Karobonik will join Neill, serving as New Media Rights alternate representative to the CAC for a second term.