Phyllis Marion, associate dean for library and information resources at the California Western School of Law Library, will be inducted into the American Association of Law Libraries Hall of Fame.

Marion, who is also a professor of law at California Western, will be inducted and recognized for her achievements next month in Philadelphia.

The American Association of Law Libraries Hall of Fame was established in 2009 to recognize members who have made significant, substantial and long-standing contributions to the profession of legal information management.

“Receiving the award is a career highlight,” Marion said in a prepared statement.
