

Attorney Melissa Deleon Joins CaseyGerry Law Firm

Melissa Deleon

CaseyGerry, a San Diego-based plaintiffs law firm, has added attorney Melissa Deleon to its legal team. Deleon, immediate past president of the Filipino American Lawyers of San Diego, is a San Diego native and graduate of California Western School of Law. She has concentrated her practice on serious personal injury and civil rights litigation, and has advocated on behalf of individuals with developmental disabilities who have been the victims of caretaker abuse and neglect.

Deleon continues to be active in the Filipino American Lawyers of San Diego and was recently elected to the Filipino American Chamber of Commerce as a 2015 director. In 2014, she was one of seven Filipino community leaders appointed by the Philippine Honorary Consul of San Diego, Audie de Castro, as a member of San Diego's Philippine Consulate Advisory Council. She is currently the vice chair of San Diego County Bar Association's Ethnic Relations and Diversity Committee.
