Once you are logged in, look on the left hand side of the screen and click the Browse button.

This will give you a list of folders.

Scroll down the list until you find the Summer 2020 folder. Click the little triangle next to the folder.

This will give you a list of the professors, sorted by last name.

Among the professor's names, there will be some tutoring videos, and classes that were delivered online from the beginning of the semester.

Just keep scrolling until you find your professor's name.

When you click on your professor's name, you will get a list of the recordings that the professor has posted.
