

NATIVE AMERICAN LAW STUDENTS ASSOCIATION (NALSA)

The Native American Law Student Association (NALSA) was formed to increase the awareness of legal issues that affect Native Americans and to promote a sense of community among students from various tribes and indigenous groups.

Membership is open to all students interested in contemporary Native American culture and traditions.

NALSA@law.cwsl.edu